

More on Person-Centred Planning

A Facilitator's Guide to Person-Directed Planning

http://www.familyserVICetoronto.org/programs/options/A_Facilitators_Guide_to_Person_Directed_Planning_6.pdf

This guide, developed by six agencies (Corbrook, Griffin Centre, Family Service Toronto, JVS Toronto, Operation Springboard, Montage Support Services), is intended to help those involved better understand the transition planning process and the role of the facilitator in Person-Directed Planning.

Inclusive Solutions

<http://inclusive-solutions.com/person-centred-planning/>

Inclusive Solutions, a UK organization, provides helpful definitions of Person-Centered Planning, videos of the process, and descriptions of different types of and approaches to planning, as well as links to other useful organizations.

Person-Centered Planning Approaches: A Literature Review

<http://www.qamtraining.net/docs/english/Person-Centered%20Planning%20Approaches.pdf>

This literature review, prepared for the Persons with Developmental Disabilities Central Alberta Community Board, defines Person-Centered Planning and gives an extensive list of resources focusing on various approaches to this process that can be helpful to both educators and families.

Planning for Real Life After School

<http://www.inclusion.com/books/planningforlife.pdf>

This booklet, created by Inclusion Press, explains Person-Centred Planning and includes descriptions of three tools that the Marsha Forest Centre has created – Circles of Support, MAPs, and PATH.

Planning for Real Life After School is also available in a plain language version at:

<http://www.inclusion.com/books/planningforlifeplain.pdf>

Inclusion Press offers numerous other resources that employ or presuppose Person-Centred Planning: <http://www.inclusion.com/inclusionpress.html>

If you know of a particularly helpful resource on Person-Centered Planning, please share this on our Facebook page.*

