Mimi: Hi Anik

Anik: Hi Michelline

Mimi: Are you fine?

Anik: Yes, I am and you?

Mimi: No worries!

Anik: We meet at the Rainbow toy-washing work program. We wash toys. We “play” well!

Mimi: Yes.

Anik: I have known Mimi for 9 years. Since 9 years we have worked together. This is good!

Mimi: Yes.

Anik: We eat together.

Mimi: The breaks!

Anik: We take break together.

Mimi: Yes.

Anik: We speak together.

Mimi: We speak together.

Anik: Having friends at work--it's important because, they are here to help when we have some troubles with something. During the break I talk to Mimi to see if she had difficulties, or if she wasn't happy. We talk of what is happening at work. We play cards.

Mimi: Yes, and we go bowling.

Anik: We go bowling together. In a group, we can do a lot of activities. Having a lot of friends is an advantage. We can get to know each other, and then we know each other well. And this is the way finally we can make a lot of friends.

Mimi: The cake ...

Anik: We made a party for Mimi's brother. There were balloons everywhere, and then he was really happy. And Mimi is my friend because she is nice and I love her a lot.

Mimi: Me too, Anik. You are beautiful and kind.

Anik: We don't like to quarrel

Mimi: Not often.

Anik: Not often, but it happens.

Mimi: We talk together.

Anik: We speak about how we can fix it. I feel good when we are not quarreling anymore, and I spend (the other) half of the day in good spirits.

Mimi: Yes, me too.
