

Josianne on Friends and Friendship

Transcript

(English subtitles)

Joanie: I think this is important to have friends, and beautiful friendship is precious. And you? Your friends, what do they bring to you? What do you like in them?

Josianne: Happiness, joy. This makes me able to speak to the ones I love, like you, Arianne, and your brother. Without them, I'd be talking alone; I'd be speaking to myself

Joanie: Are you someone who would rather be alone, in your own corner, or do you who prefer be with others?

Josianne: With others!

Joanie: Why?

Josianne: Because alone, in your own corner, it's boring to spend the day like that.

Joanie: And with friends...

Josianne: We do more things

Joanie: We share?

Josianne: Yes

Josianne: I enjoy bringing pleasure to my friends, because they are happy to see me. What do I like to do for my friends? Making cards for their birthday . Calling them when I want to speak with them. Or I make jewelry sometimes to give them.

Joanie: And with Aurélie, for example, what are you doing with Aurélie on the computer?

Josianne: I write emails to her--to know if she is fine.

Joanie: Does she answer you?

Josianne: Yes I ask things like, What is she doing in her life? Or about what she has done today. Sometimes when she answers me I tell her what I've done today and then I say to her, "I had a fun at work."

Joanie: So you explain what you're doing at your work?

Josianne: Yes

Joanie: You share news?

Josianne: Yes, I like to keep in touch with my friends by calling them or with email, or by setting up meetings. We'll meet up at a restaurant, a certain place.

Joanie: I think that having friends, true friends, is to be real, be yourself with someone. And with you, Josianne, this is what happens.
