

Mary and Jaclyn - Guitar Playing

Transcript

Opening: Mary and Jaclyn playing guitars and singing "This little light of mine"

Jaclyn: I learned guitar for almost three years, and it's one of my goals that I wanted to do—to play guitar in Faith and Light.

Mary: And what inspired you to want to learn to play?

Jaclyn: I wanted to play guitar because my mom used to play guitar. And me and my mom practice together at home all the songs I know, and especially this one. I saw it on the computer and on the L'Arche Canada website and wanted to get to play that one.

Mary: That's great. You really persevered, didn't you? You had a real desire to learn, and you've been practicing regularly.

Jaclyn: Also, I know a few chords, I know the A chord, also A7 chord...two chords that I know this year.

Mary: You've learned them--those are your most recent ones. Good...because guitar playing is important for Faith and Light, isn't it?

Jaclyn: Yeh. She's (Mary's) the only one who's doing the guitar every time, but since I'm around, I fill in.

Mary: That's perfect!
