

Augmentative Communication Community Partnerships Canada (ACCPC)

This website explains different ways that people who do not use speech can use to communicate. Ask someone to help you understand the ideas and suggestions in this website.

It has a lot of good resources for people who communicate without words. It also has information for attendants.

It has information on:

- Safety
- How to access augmentative communication
- Connecting to your community
- Transitioning to adulthood
- And more!

To see the ACCPC website, visit: <http://www.accpc.ca/>

