

Access to Travel

Access to Travel is a website for people across Canada.

To use Access to Travel, visit: <http://www.accesstotravel.gc.ca/>

It will help you figure out accessible transportation. If your area does not have accessible transportation this site will not be helpful.

The blue menu on the left side of the page gives you different options.

These are some of them that you might find helpful:

Transportation Between Canadian Cities:

- Click on this to find out options for travel between cities.

Local Transportation:

- Click on this and find out if there is accessible transportation available in your area.

Tips for Travellers with Disabilities:

- This section gives you some tools. They will be helpful for longer trips. This link (<http://www.accesstotravel.gc.ca/58.aspx>) gives you a list of things to think about.
